Art Unit: 2815

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 21-41, 43-66 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-46 of U.S. Patent No. 6,023,075. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the structure of the present claims is included in the claims of '075.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 67-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-46 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,023,075. This is a double patenting rejection.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 21-41,43,44,49,52,53,56,61-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chang with Misawa and Yamazaki.

The previous rejection applies.

Claims 21-41,43-56,61-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chang with Misawa, Yamazaki, and further in view of Baldi.

The previous rejection still applies.

Claims 21-41,43-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chang with Misawa, Yamazaki, and Baldi and further in view of Sumiyoshi and Akiyama.

The previous rejection applies.

Applicant's arguments filed 1/18/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Arguments that Misawa does not show a leveling film in both the pixel and driver portions is unconvincing because "leveling film" 84, 95 of Misawa clearly does cover both areas of transistors. See column 6 lines 61-64 of Misawa. Furthermore, Sumiyoshi and Akiyama clearly teach such leveling films. See the paragraph on fabrication in Akiyama, and page 9 of the translation of Sumiyoshi where a planarizing process is also used for the peripheral circuitry.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
